

For Our Shenandoah Neighbors – our agency partner, the Beverly Mattson Memorial Food Bank housed in the former JW Cooper Community Center, is looking for a new location to hold its pantry distributions. They hope to be back serving the community in June.

In the interim, Helping Harvest will offer two additional distributions in April and May (thank you Mrs. T's Pierogies for the space!)

Please do not arrive early so traffic is not disrupted. ***

2 Herald Rd, Shenandoah

Monday, April 22, 11am-1pm

Tuesday, May 7, 11am-1pm (regular monthly Shenandoah Mobile Market)

Friday, May 24, 11am-1pm